ST. PHILLIP'S CHURCH AND GRAVE OF JOHN C. CALHOUN
CHARLESTON, S. C.

A landmark on Church Street, St. Phillip's is known as the Mother Parish of the Episcopal Church in S. C. The first building was erected circa 1690, and the present structure 1835-8. John C. Calhoun was twice a United States senator and Vice President of the U. S.

Photography by Ernest Ferguson

26139-B

Published by Photo Arts, Winnsboro, S. C.

MADE BY DEXTER
WOOLEN MILLS, INC.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

POST CARD